WHAT-TO-DO-IN-VIENNA: A SELECTION OF PLACES TO GO

RUNNING EVENT

Start the day jogging along the main alley of the Viennese Prater, a huge park attracting people to do sports, relax and picnic.

Sunday, July 17th, 7:15, meet the group at the beginning of the main alley („Prater Hauptallee“) → U1/U2 Praterstern

For any questions please contact Monica Bomba (Whatsapp: 00393491333248) or Yvonne Czermak (Whatsapp: 004369914977863)

VENUES WITH A VIEW

Das Loft (Sofitel): A great restaurant and bar at the waterfront with windows from floor to ceiling and therefore a beautiful view over the city. The ceiling has been designed by the Swiss artist Pipilotti Rist

<https://www.dasloftwien.at>

Have breakfast, lunch or just a sundowner, reservations are requested! Praterstraße 1 → U1/U4 Schwedenplatz

Dachboden (25-hours Hotel): A charmingly-designed bar with good music (DJ), located close to Ringstrasse and therefore, to historical buildings like Parliament, Town Hall and Museumsquartier. The terrace offers a great view. At the park surrounding the building you can find a booth offering delicious burgers.

<https://www.25hours-hotels.com/restaurants-bars/wien/dachboden>,

Lerchenfelderstraße 1/3 → U3 Volkstheater

Badeschiff: An ship anchored on the Danube, right in the city center – eat, drink and use the pool to have a swim on a hot day or evening (close to “Das Loft”) <https://www.badeschiff.at>
Franz-Josefs-Kai 4 → U1/U4 Schwedenplatz

Donauturm: The tower is a Viennese landmark, a technical masterpiece, a stylish reinterpretation of the 1960s. The express lift takes you to the viewing terrace at a height of 150 meters for an unforgettable 360° panorama, there is also a restaurant at the top. Reservations are required! <https://www.donauturm.at>
Donauturmplatz 1 → U6 Floridsdorf + 20 minutes walk

Chez Bernard (Motto): A hotel bar and restaurant within the recently opened hotel “Motto”, offering a roof top terrace with a beautiful view over Vienna. Reservations are recommended! Schadekgasse 20 → U3 Neubaugasse
<https://www.hotelmotto.at/chez-bernard>

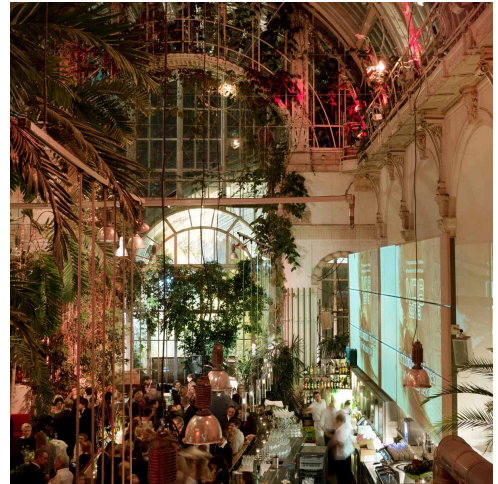

OPEN-AIR VENUES

Museumsquartier (MQ):
The thoroughly renovated buildings used to be home to the royal riding school and horse stables, nowadays they are housing several museums of contemporary fine arts and a number of bars and restaurants.

The buildings open up into a square, where you can enjoy music (DJ) and open-air activities like authors` readings or boule game. Some extra feature of MQ is „Enzi“, an outdoor piece of furniture specially designed to relax within these extraordinary surroundings → U3 Volkstheater
<https://www.mqw.at/en/>

Palmenhaus: Designed in the 1820th as a greenhouse, today's Palmenhaus has been rebuilt and reassigned many times until it was reopened at the end of 1900: The main part has been turned into a fancy café-bar-restaurant, the left wing into „house of butterflies“ → Tram 1, 2, D or 71 Burgring. <https://www.palmenhaus.at/en/>
The terrace opens up into Burggarten, a highly frequented hang-out place - on special nights there is a small community dancing Tango in a corner of the park.

Right behind the building a historical Palais housing “Albertina Museum” (a museum of contemporary art) is located, so it seems a good option to combine the visit: <https://www.albertina.at/en/home>

WATERFRONT VENUES

Summer Stage: When it gets unbearably hot in the city, summer stage seems one of the right places to go. Located directly at the Danube Canal in the shade of trees, it consists of a variety of open-air bars – enjoy cultural events and live music.
<https://www.summerstage.at> → U4 Roßauer Lände

Motto am Fluss: Since 2010 this restaurant has been making the landing stage of the Twin-City Liner – on the banks of the Danube Canal, in the heart of Vienna – even more attractive. It offers modern, international contemporary cuisine with an Austrian focus.

<https://www.mottoamfluss.at/de/willkommen/>

Franz-Josefs-Kai 2 → U1/U4 Schwedenplatz

Das Bootshaus: A stylish restaurant at the Old Danube with a spacious terrace and a landing stage → U1 Alte Donau + 15 minutes walk along the waterfront, nice! <https://www.dasbootshaus.at>

In general: A walk along the Danube Canal promenade offers a colorful sight – you can visit nice restaurants and bars, take in architectural sites and enjoy graffiti works of art.

CULTURAL SUMMER EVENTS

Summer Film Festival on Town Hall Square:

A highly frequented place, by tourists as well as by the Viennese. As soon as darkness sets in, opera is being presented on a big screen, surrounded by booths offering food from many parts of the world. Tram 1, D, 71 Rathausplatz/ Burgtheater, Tram 2 Parlament

<https://filmfestival-rathausplatz.at/en/>

Impulstanz Festival:

International dance companies present themselves, the performances are staged in different, charming places all over the city, <https://www.impulstanz.com/en/>

- Kino am Dach: <https://kinoamdach.at/>
- Kaleidoskop: <https://kaleidoskop.film/en/>
- Volxkino: <https://volxkino.at/>
- Kino wie noch nie: <https://www.filmarchiv.at/program>

A SMALL SELECTION OF MUSEUMS AND EXHIBITIONS

Museum Gugging: In 1954 Dr. Navratil, leading psychiatrist of a ward for mostly chronic schizophrenic patients, used drawing tests for diagnostic purposes. Inspired by the creativity he perceived, he helped his patients developing their talents. In 1969 he managed to connect with Jean Dubuffet, since then the Gugging artists have been internationally renowned for their art-brut talent.

Museum Gugging, a charming place, was opened in 2006, today's performing artists are living next door, in the „House of Artists“, <https://www.museumgugging.at/en/gugging-art/gugging-artists>.

The Gugging artists:

<https://www.museumgugging.at/en/gugging-art/gugging-artists>

→ Subway U4 Heiligenstadt + Bus 400 or IST-Austria-Shuttlebus to Maria Gugging IST Austria

Narrenturm (fools` tower): Originally a home to mentally ill patients, it has become a monument to the history of health care in the late 18th century.

Today it displays the Vienna anatomical-pathological collection, radiating grim charms, <https://www.nhm-wien.ac.at/en/narrenturm>. The museum is located in the center of university campus, therefore a nice place to meet up and enjoy the adjacent students` pubs. „Altes AKH“, → Tram 43, 44, 5, 33 Lange Gasse.

Sigmund Freud Museum: Berggasse 19 has been Freuds residence for 49 years, until he had to emigrate during the war. The museum displays private as well as practice rooms, guided tours can be booked. <https://www.freud-museum.at/en/>, → Tram 1, D Schwarzspanierstrasse

Leopold Museum (Museumsquartier): A display of original, internationally renowned works of the Austrian „Jugendstil“-area, featuring Gustav Klimt, Egon Schiele and Oskar Kokoschka. <https://www.leopoldmuseum.org/en> → U3 Volkstheater

Belvedere 21: Contemporary international work of art is being displayed in a newly constructed building, surrounded by a sculpture garden, a nice place to hang out after visiting the exhibitions, <https://www.belvedere.at/en/belvedere-21-museum-contemporary-art>
The current exhibition “Avant-Gard and the Contemporary” offers a wide-ranged view on contemporary Austrian artists: <https://www.belvedere.at/en/avant-garde-and-contemporary-0>
Tram 1, 18, O Quartier Belvedere

GUIDED TOURS

“Shade Tours Vienna”: Different minority groups (homeless people, refugees, drug addicts) create tours in order to present their views of Vienna, elaborating on personal and community life, on meeting- and hiding-places and on what they meant to them, <https://shades-tours.com/en/shades-tours/>

“Queer Vienna City Walks”: The offer comprises a number of guided walks describing „queer life“ in Vienna over decades, within districts and with historical personalities – a thrilling and funny experience
<https://www.qwien.at/guide/>

A „Queer City Walk“ for EPF congress visitors has been organised by the congress committee in Vienna, please register to participate!

„Following the footsteps of Sigmund Freud“ (Freud Museum): The tour is leading through the city’s districts corresponding to Freud’s biography, passing a selection of places to remember him by. A tour has been organised by the congress committee in Vienna, please register to participate!

TRADITIONAL COFFEESHOPS

Café Jelinek: Just off Mariahilfer Strasse, it seems the perfect place to escape the hustle and bustle of shopping for a few moments. This little café offers everything that Viennese coffee house culture is known for.

Most things have been left unchanged for decades: The wrought iron fireplace, excellent coffee, free newspapers and many sweet temptations give Café Jelinek a very special charm. Taste the home-made „Guglhupf“ cake! Otto-Bauer-Gasse 5, 1060 Vienna → U3 Neubaugasse <http://cafejelinek.steman.at>

Café Sperl: Located between Mariahilfer Strasse and Vienna's famous Naschmarkt, the Café has been offering Viennese coffee house culture since 1880. Café Sperl is perfectly suited for a short break in old Vienna, so have a cup of coffee and a piece of original Sperl Torte or enjoy yourself at one of the billiard tables. Gumpendorfer Straße 11 → U2 Karlsplatz, <http://www.cafesperl.at>

Café Hawelka: Not far from Stephansplatz you can find „the Hawelka“, one of Vienna's most legendary cafés. Its distinctive charm has made it a popular meeting place for decades – also for famous Austrian and international artists, such as Hans Moser, Udo Jürgens or Andy Warhol. Leopold Hawelka: “It would not be the Hawelka without my wife“, whose famous sweet „Buchteln“ have been inspiring to visitors for the longest time. Dorotheergasse 6 → U1/U3 Stephansplatz, <http://www.hawelka.at>

Café Korb: The Café has been founded in 1904, it is situated in the vicinity of Stephansplatz. The owner, actress and performance artist Susanne Widl, keeps hosting the philosophic, psychoanalytic and musical events, the Café has been famous for. Brandstätte 9 → U1/U3 Stephansplatz <http://www.cafekorb.at/>

Café Prückel: Located on Ringstrasse the Café seems to be impressive due to its qualities as a typical Viennese Café as well as its architecture. The interior was designed in the 1950s by the architect Oswald Haerdtl, who was also a regular guest at „the Prückel“. Stubenring 24 → U3 Stubentor, U4 Landstraße, <http://www.prueckel.at>

Café Schwarzenberg: The Café is reminiscent of the golden times of the Ringstrasse era. In addition to coffee and pastries, a variety of tea is being offered. Kärntner Ring 17, 1010 Vienna → U4 Karlsplatz <http://www.cafe-schwarzenberg.at>

MARKETS

Naschmarkt: The market displays booths with lush fruit, vegetables and dishes as well as many fancy restaurants – a great location for getting together for food and drinks at any time of day. → U4 Karlsplatz, <https://www.wien.info/en/shopping-wining-dining/markets/naschmarkt-353536>

Just across the street you will find yourself in 4th district's "Freihausviertel" (Kettenbrückengasse, Schönbrunner Strasse, Operngasse, Margarethenstrasse) with small coffee places, shops (Viennese art and design, second hand) and petits galleries.

Brunnenmarkt: A multi-cultured quarter, basic and artsy at the same time, <https://www.wien.info/en/shopping-wining-dining/markets/yppenplatz-restaurants-366538> → Tram 44 Yppengasse

Biobauernmarkt Freyung: The organic farmers' weekly market (Friday-Saturday) at Freyung has been existing for almost 30 years. You will find a variety of foods, handmade baskets, art and wood carvings. <https://biobauernmarkt-freyung.at> → Tram 1, 71, D, Subway U2 Schottentor

Kutschkermarkt: Having been opened in 1885, it comprises about 50 stalls, offering mainly seasonal products. It is also known for exclusive delicacies and nice restaurants. Tram 40, 41, Martinstrasse, <https://www.wien.info/de/einkaufen-essen-trinken/maerkte/kutschkermarkt-350578>

Karmelitermarkt: This weekly market in the 2nd district is a great venue to meet, hang out and enjoy food and drinks at any time of day. Lately the Karmeliter district has been turning into a "hip" place to be. → Tram 1, 31 Schottenring, Tram 2 Taborstrasse <https://www.wien.gv.at/freizeit/einkaufen/maerkte/lebensmittel/karmelitermarkt.html> <https://www.wien.info/de/einkaufen-essen-trinken/maerkte/karmeliterviertel-349618>

PARKS

Schönbrunn: A wide-ranged, neatly groomed park surrounding the Castle of Schönbrunn (guided castle tours available). By a short hike you can reach “Gloriette” to enjoy a good view over the city and have some coffee or „Jause“ (snack). <https://www.schoenbrunn.at/en/> , → U4 Schönbrunn. The park is also home to the Viennese zoo, <https://www.zoovienna.at>

Prater: A 15-minutes tramway ride from “Ringstrasse” to Prater offers some impression of different corners of the city. The park is a huge area, including woodland, a small lake, children’s playgrounds and meadows to relax and picnic. “Prater Hauptallee”, the main alley (4,5 km), is very popular with joggers, bikers and walkers. It leads to “Lusthaus”, where you can have breakfast, drinks and snacks. <https://www.wien.info/en/sightseeing/prater/green-prater-347284>
→ Subway U1, U2 Praterstern

Close by you can visit “Wurstelprater”, a great place to have fun, for children as well as grown-ups, <https://www.praterwien.com/en/prater/fun-in-vienna/history>: Go on rollercoaster or pony rides, have ice cream or traditional Austrian food. You may want to try „Stelze“, a hearty, Viennese dish (crispy pork knuckle) at the famous “Schweizerhaus” <https://schweizerhaus.at>

Augarten: A big public park groomed in french-style, holding Vienna's oldest baroque-designed garden as well as the „Augartenpalais“, home to a porcelain factory. It is definitely a place, where the Viennese like to hang out. If you feel like having a late breakfast or a “Spritzer” (mix of wine & soda), just visit the „Schankwirtschaft“ → Tram 1, 31 Obere Augartenstrasse, U2 Taborstrasse <https://www.augarten.com/en/>

SWIMMING

Alte Donau: With numerous spots to enjoy sunbathing and swimming it has been a popular place with the Viennese for over a century
<https://www.wien.gv.at/umwelt/gewaesser/alte-donau/erholung.html>

Badeschiff: Check out „Venues with a view“

Gänsehäufel: This sand island within the Alte Donau, about 20 ha of size, is another highly popular bathing area. The name refers to the „heaps“, that had been piled up for goose breeding in former times.

<https://www.stadt-wien.at/freizeit/sport/schwimmbaeder/gaensehaeufer.html>, Subway U1 Kaisermühlen or U2 Donaustadtbrücke
+ Bus 90A/92A Schüttauplatz
